

THE OLD SCHOOL BUNKHOUSE is situated approximately four miles from Ingleton in Yorkshire Dales limestone country. Located between Ingleborough and Whernside, with superb views of both. The bunkhouse makes an ideal base for sporting or nature holidays.

For the walker - Ingleborough and Whernside are on the doorstep and a few miles away is Pen-Y-Ghent. Together they form the 'three peaks' a walk of 27 miles. There are many other footpaths including Blea Moor and over to the Ribblesdale Viaduct.

In and around Ingleton are many beautiful walks, including the Waterfalls walk covering 4 miles up one glen and back down the other glen. White Scar show caves are 1.5 miles from Ingleton and the Ingleborough Show Cave is in Clapham (4 miles from Ingleton)

Gaping Ghyll, which is a pothole 365 deep, is open for decent on a bosuns chair at Spring and August bank holidays.

For the caver - the area is well known for having the best caves and potholes in the country. Within walking distance of the bunkhouse, all abilities are provided for with novice trips like Great Dowk, up to grade 5 trips like Black Shiver pot.

For the climber - novice and expert alike can find sport on the nearby outcrop of Twistleton Scar (see farmer for permission). Further afield there is Malham Cove.

By car - many small towns and villages are within easy reach and well worth visiting such as Settle, Malham, Horton in Ribblesdale, Kirkby Lonsdale, Dent, Hawes and Sedbergh.
